Express Yourself on Public Questions

If you favor or oppose any public proposition, have the courage of your convictions by expressing yourself. Too many of our people will coincide with a good movement, but do it in private, or send in their endorsement over long distance telephone so no one will know their position. Here in this part of the city we have many important matters that rightly belong to our citizens to determine, yet but a few even express themselves either in favor or disapproval and a wrong impression is created. We are not getting our share of public improvements or proper representation in many branches of the government, and we are largely to blame ourselves because we do not go after it. Our streets and alleys are in frightful condition. Write your alderman and telephone the ward superintendent. If you feel that the police are not paying enough attention to your neighborhood, call up Captain Allman and then call him down; the same with the fire department, although it is about always right. Your aldermen want to hear your complaints, so don't be bashful about telling them what you think we are entitled to and, right here let us say if you find reason to commend a public official, don't be grouchy about it Let him know you appreciate what he is doing and tell him so.

Some Queer Economics

Everyone almost is preaching "economy," and the strange thing about it is that everyone wants the "other fellow" to do the economizing. The police and firemen of the city are out for an increase of salary from $25 a month upwards; the school teachers insist that they are the poorest paid of city employes and they want a plump sum dropped in their inside pocket; everyone connected with the public business from the "experts" who abstracted a million each down to the "white wings" who are supposed to sweep the streets, want more money for their jobs, yet, every one of them is hollering his head off for the government to economize. The tax payers are burdened with such a load that investments are crippled and there is no rush to invest in taxable property, yet someone must pay. The usual way is to appoint an investigating committee who take an excursion to the Atlantic or Pacific coast, piling up thousands of dollars in expenses, and then forget all about it. The idea of economy must reach all from the bottom to the top and all must be willing to pare down a bit if we can ever hope for normal conditions and it does seem that public employes have no right to ask for increases while all other lines of industry are asked to submit to reductions.

Miss Anna Hunter, 6356 Stewart ave., was in Joliet, Ill., on a successful business trip the past week.

Misses Pearl and Edna Hutchinson of Talula, Ill., were the guests of their cousin, Miss Stella Ayres, 6356 Stewart ave.

Geo. G. Howard, 6304 Stewart ave., has opened a shoe shine parlor and is an expert at that business.

Modern Laundry is One of the Finest in State

The Modern Laundry, situated at the corner of 58th and Halsted sts., represents in building and equipment one of the finest laundries in the state. One very important part of their equipment is the mammoth soft water system, costing thousands of dollars. Charles W. Brown, proprietor and manager, has always in mind that a satisfied customer means a continual growth in business, and he has never yet refused to purchase anything that means better work, and more efficient method in the handling and care of his patrons' goods.

The soft water system means to the customers of this modern plant good, clean, white, wholesome work and longer life to the linens. Some ten years ago Mr. Brown opened a small store directly opposite the present site and in about one year was obliged to take over another store. Then in about eighteen months was again, on account of the continual growth of business, obliged to take over the adjoining store.

Soon after, not being any more frontage to take, he made arrangements to take a part of the upper story, but soon again the business had outgrown its quarters, and then the great war came. But Mr. Brown was optimistic about the future and in the face of all the high prices of labor and material, went ahead and erected a plant representing in building and equipment over $100,000, and he is now considering an addition to the already large plant. We take it that his methods of business and the process of laundering in his plant must naturally mean something and have, of course, all to do with the wonderful growth of this Modern plant.

In the opening of his one store ten years ago there were three employes and Mr. Brown himself. This plant now has on its pay roll over one hundred employes and in money this represents thousands of dollars annually spent in and about this community.

Your Dollar's Opportunity

Messages to Seekers of Success

Your dollar's opportunity is now, today! Set it to work for you. Give it the task of multiplying itself. In doing so it will perform its part in the world affairs.

Every man's money should be making use of this opportunity. Farmers, for instance, can not only feed the world; through businesslike handling of their farms and businesslike handling of their incomes they can help to develop the world.

Thrift Is Patriotism

Saving is a form of serving. It is one of the biggest forms of national service—service to your country. Our first president said, "Economy makes happy homes and sound nations."

The way to start right is to start right now! Saving is as much a habit as spending or putting things off. Once formed, it is easy to continue. But unlike other habits, it is a good habit.

New Gresham-Brainerd Park

Editor Englewood Times.
Dear Sir:

The prolonged and at times very discouraging effort to secure a park for the Brainerd-Gresham district with Loomis blvd. as a connecting link from W. 87th st. to the South Park System was finally decided by the South Park Commission, Wednesday, April 20th.

A park of 26 acres was granted, also Loomis blvd. from W. 87th to W. 67th st. The size of park is not what was desired, but in view of the fact that through efforts of the association 73 per cent of what we aimed at was secured, there is reason to feel "tolerable good, yes, sah."

We thank you very much for your support, which has been so generous and beneficial to our cause.

Respectfully,
M. D. SORENSON, Pres.
W. C. BRINKERHOFF,
Chairman Ex. Committee.

LINDEN PHOTODROME

The Linden offers an unusually good bill this week of a collection of the best and best plays that have been shown this season. A faculty of Manager Tom Johnson's is to offer a diversified line of plays covering all of the emotions, thrilling western and society dramas with a clean cut vein of comedy, that keeps his audiences in a pleasurable mood at all times.

Beginning today, Friday, also Saturday, April 29th and 30th, he offers that great story treasured by millions of American people as the best story they ever read or the best play of its time, "East Lynne." The picturization exceeds in interest the speaking play, and the cast is one of superlative excellence. Don't miss seeing it. On Friday also will be Kinograms, Bruce Scenic and a fine Bobby Ray comedy. On Saturday Pathe News, the Gumps and final episode of "The Double Adventure."

On Sunday, Monday Tuesday and

Wednesday, May 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th, matinee and night, comes the accomplished and well known Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven in a wonderful picturization of the most popular play, "The Girl in the Taxi." This is a comedy of real merit, is clean cut and enjoyable and has so many features that the audience is kept bubbling from the first to the last. The DeHavens are a greater success in the cinema even than on the speaking stage and this is the best of their many productions. You will not want to miss it and better mark the dates right now.

For Wednesday and Thursday, May 4th and 5th, matinee and night, Mr. Johnson will present that best of all western stars and rough rider, Tom Mix, in his latest and most thrilling western drama, "Hands Off." Everyone loves Tom Mix and he has no peer in his presentation of the quick action, red blooded heroic parts and the present play gives him good opportunity for showing up in all of these stage qualities. It is a good play by a good company and you will enjoy every minute it is on the screen. Also a good two-part comedy will be presented, a late topical picture reel and travelogues that entertain and interest one.

Housekeepers attention! Be sure and read Modern Laundry display ad, this issue. 25 pounds family washing, including ironing all flat work, drying wearing apparel, no starch, $2.25. Cheaper than you can do at home. 2 phones—all departments—Went. 987-988.—adv.

New Regent Theatre

Manager Busch may well feel proud of the everlasting crowds he is bringing to his house, the New Regent, at 6824-26 Halsted St. He selects his bookings with great discretion and pleases everyone, giving a good bill every day, matinee and night.

He begins today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, April 29th and 30th, with the pleasing little favorite, Constance Talmadge, in the most pleasing of plays, "Mamma's Affair." Everyone knows "Connie" and knows just how entertaining she can be and this is no exception to the rule. She blows kisses to her audience as slibly as she makes love to her many suitors and has a neat attack of hysterics just in time to upset the program for all the others, but gives her a very pretty finale. Also a good comedy and pictures of travel.

On Sunday and Monday, May 1st and 2nd, continuous from 1530 to 11:30, the New Regent presents everyone's favorite, Wallace Reid, in the best railroad play yet produced, "The Love Special," adapted from a most popular story. The scenes are all laid in the railroad building period in the great West and a bunch of pretty eastern girls get mixed up with the railroad engineers and there is a hot time from beginning to the final denouement.

On Tuesday, May 3rd, matinee and night, comes the stately and beautiful Elaine Hammerstein, in "The Miracle of Manhattan," the play that has drawn record audiences for the past few weeks in the East and in the big "loop" houses.

On Wednesday and Thursday comes that charming little beauty and favorite, Marguerite Clark, in her best effort for many moons, "Scrambled Wives." A complicated divorce and two or three outside lovers manage to keep the versatile little actress busy from first to last and she loses nothing in any of the lively scenes.

Manager Busch has hit it off fine for the coming week and his patrons will agree with us after seeing the entire bill, and we can conscientiously recommend every attraction as they are all good ones.

Grammar School Base Ball League

The first games in the league will be played Monday, May 7th, and will be: Lewis Champlin v. Oglesby and Harvard v. St. Leo's. The schools in this league are: Lewis Champlain, Oglesby, Harvard, St. Leo's, Kershaw, St. Bernard, St. Kilian, Ryder, St. Sabina and Parker Practice.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The announced change in the management of the Marlowe theatre took place this week and Mr. Harry Smith has assumed the lease as well as the management and will improve the house in many ways, introducing new features and a much better class of movies, as well as higher class vaudeville. The Marlowe programs henceforth will consist not only of a high class movie show with a good comedy, travelogues and topical events, but there will be every night at least five big vaudeville acts.

On every Tuesday night they will have the local song contest with a series of valuable prizes, which the favor of the audience will award to some local singer. On Wednesday night as a special feature they will offer a prize to the best neighborhood bathing costume revue, no one but local parties allowed to compete and the winner to be awarded a handsome and valuable prize.

On every Friday there will be a professional revue of from seven to ten big vaudeville acts, and on Saturday six big acts of the latest and best in vaudeville, as well as a high class first run feature picture, besides the comedy and travel pictures and topical events and screen reviews.

The Marlowe has gone back to the pre-war prices and no house in the town is offering half so good a show at such reasonable prices as ten, fifteen and twenty-five cents, plus the war tax. The reputation is the largest and best show in town at the lowest prices.

Wonderful matinees for the ladies and children Saturdays, also Sunday, and special programs. Complete change of program for the Sunday shows. Don't miss the Marlowe Hippodrome and you will enjoy a good show at very low prices.

EMPRESS THEATRE

The regular person enjoys an evening or afternoon of amusement and entertainment and most everyone in Englewood knows that the proper place to get this is the Empress theatre. Manager Harry Mitchell knows the wants of his clients probably better than any showman in this district, and no one is better qualified to fill them, evidence of which is the splendid shows he is putting on every day and night at this big, comfortable, well ventilated show house. The pictures at the Empress are the best and always good, fresh ones that generally have a thrill mixed up with a good hearty laugh, and everyone enjoys them. The talent engaged from week to week and oftener is the best on any circuit and at this time comprises many who never appear at any "outside" house but the Empress, and who make a booking here knowing they will find a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Mitchell's large acquaintance in the profession gives him special advantages that he constantly uses, that his audiences may enjoy the latest and best on the "vodevil" stage. A special mention must be made of the excellent music Empress theatre patrons enjoy. The orchestra members are artists, everyone, and favor with the most classical selections as well as the jazziest jazzes that ever come down the pike, pleasing all tastes and catering to everyone. The popular prices at the Empress can be maintained owing to the large capacity of the house, and the most expensive bookings may be made that the smaller houses cannot afford. Whatever is good at the big loop houses will be seen at the Empress and no extra attraction is too big or too good for the Empress theatre patrons, as Manager Mitchell secures them as soon as they can be booked. The programs are too diversified and too changeable to advertise them individually, but anyone may be assured of a good show any time, afternoon or evening, at the Empress theatre.

Harvard

You will like the program at the Harvard the coming week. It is one succession of good plays after another with enough comedy and humorous stuff to make the heavier matter the more enjoyable. Beginning Friday and Saturday, today and tomorrow, Manager Coston will present that delightful little comedienne, Marguerite Clark, in an entirely new play in which she heads her own company, entitled "Scrambled Wives." Look at her! Already Lucile has eloped, had the marriage annulled, and is in love with a man who hates divorcees. Now her first husband has come along with a new wife, and if the truth gets out she's going to be a divorcee all her life. No wonder she wonders—. "You mustn't let them know I ever married you!" They both said it together. But how are they going to keep the secret when around them are a suspicious wife, a jealous fiance, and a girl who was present when the terrible event happened. And then the scramble started. Also a new two part christie comedy, Pathe News and matinee only, "Fighting Fate."

Sunday and Monday comes a double feature, Mary Miles Minter with an all star cast will be seen in the picture for everybody, old and young, "The Little Clown." The saucy little witch just owned the whole circus, owner and all. The big top, and the applauding crowds, the love and admiration of the whole troupe—that was all she knew of life. Then love came, and Pat left the old life behind to find herself in a different world—a world of social conventions, of aristocratic traditions, of sneers and unkindness calculated to freeze her warm little heart. And with it Manager Coston offers that rising young comedian, Buster Keaton, in his special two part comedy, "Hard Luck," the funniest he ever attempted and his acknowledged success of the season, a regular scream and a guffaw. Also, matinee only, "The Diamond Queen."

On Tuesday and Wednesday, May 3rd and 4th, matinee and night, the Harvard will show Englewood's great favorite, Wallace Reid, in a new scintillating and thrilling play, "The Love Special," the greatest railroad play of the day. The story revolves around Jim Glover, a construction engineer on a mountain railroad division, who gets "in dutch" with the daughter of the president of one road on first meeting her, and then falls in love with her and wins her despite the schemes of Harrison, a director of the road, who also loves the girl. Eugene B. Lewis wrote the scenario and the picture was directed by Frank Urson, former assistant to Cecil B. deMille, who has now become a full-fledged director. Also Burton Holmes Travelogues, a Christie comedy and Gaumont News.

On Thursday, May 5th, comes the greatest society play of the season with the beautiful and stately Wanda Hawley, supported by an elegant cast in "The Outside Woman." Wanda is a great bargain hunter and exchanges a much treasured curio of her husband for a beautiful shawl. Here the trouble begins. The idol is very valuable and belongs to an artist upstairs. See it.

Woodlawn Theatre

The Woodlawn theatre beautiful offers two splendid attractions for the coming week and both are of such excellence that patrons will thank Manager Karzas for his foresight in booking them long before other houses could secure them, or put them on in smaller houses. For Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, May 1st, 2nd and 3rd, the Woodlawn will show that sprightly little actress, Mary Miles Minter, in her latest and best success, "The Little Clown." All children love motion pictures, and parents may well be grateful to Realart for the clean, wholesome stories in which they present Miss Minter. "The Little Clown" is full, from beginning to end, of delightful comedy situations which will please the most blase picture patron, yet which are perfectly suitable for a juvenile audience to see. A real circus, one of the few wagon outfits left in this country, was hired to put on the circus scenes, which are so realistic that probably every daddy in town will make an excuse for seeing this picture, just as dads habitually take their youngsters to the circus so they can see it themselves. "The Little Clown" is a new comedy by Avery Hopwood, that versatile playwright who has had the unusual record of four plays running in New York at once, all during the 1920-21 theatrical season. This comedy of circus life will not be played on the stage until after the film production has been released for many months.

cluding Zena Keefe and Norman Kerry. Unusual, novel and appealing is "Proxies," the new Cosmopolitan-Paramount picture, which will be shown at the Woodlawn theatre next Wednesday and the rest of the week. The story has to do with a former convict who lives straight, but finds it hard to do so and who actually commits a hold-up and risks imprisonment to save his benefactor from falling victim to the wily schemes of another man to simultaneously make a fortune and to break into society. There are many thrills throughout the action which takes place in a palatial home in which Peter, the hero, is the butler. As a result of highly dramatic circumstances, Peter proves himself a real man despite his prison record which is raked up for the purpose of ruining him. This role is played by Norman Kerry, who has appeared in support of numerous stars, and who is well known to Paramount picture audiences. Zena Virginia Keefe, the leading woman, has a highly sympathetic role. The picture was directed by George D. Baker from his own scenario based upon the story by Frank R. Adams.

Children Must Be Home by 10 O'clock

As urged for many years by the Times, the city council has at last passed an ordinance compelling children under sixteen years of age to be off the streets and in their homes before 10 o'clock. The police are ordered to send children home after that hour, first obtaining their residence and name of the parents, who will be notified. A fine of from $5 to $100 will follow and chronic violators of the law will be deemed delinquent and sent to the juvenile court. The enforcement of this measure will do much to prevent crime, and prevent immorality, as many of the delinquents and night roamers are children under the prescribed age of sixteen. Children accompanied by an adult, or those employed in an occupation permitted by law, are excepted.

The Latin-American International Problem

Prof. A. G. Baker of the University of Chicago, will be the speaker at an open forum in the Normal Park Baptist church, 70th st. and Stewart ave., next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The topic will be "The Latin-American International Problem." There is much perplexity in the average American mind at the apparent resentment in Latin-America against the Monroe Doctrine, which we regard as wholly beneficent in its purposes, and we are perplexed also at the distrust of the United States which is so often manifested. Prof. Baker spent several years in Bolivia and other parts of South America, and was in contact with high authorities. He is competent to discuss the whole situation in an enlightening way. There will be opportunity for questions from the floor. All are welcome.

Hamilton Park Branch Library

Dorothy Canfield Fisher has finished her novel for which we have been long waiting with great expectations, and the best of it all is, our hopes are fully realized, plus. "The Briming Cup," by Dorothy Canfield Fisher. Into this vital story of our modern family life enter many of the problems which are being discussed pro and con by our leaders in psychology, education, ethics, etc.

Marise and Neale face them all and fight them one by one as they are thrown in their path. They were married on the solemn compact always to remain utterly true to their highest lights, to the best that was in them as individuals. When Vincent Marsh comes into her home with his bored self-confidence and selfish interpretation of life, Marise's own confidence in her home, husband and family is shaken, but only temporarily. The unselfish and thoroughly honest basis of the love between Marise and Neale stands firm and when Neale shows Marise that their happiness depends on her solving her own problem according to her own lights, without any sentimentality on his side blurring her vision, she finds herself and comes through.

"'The Briming Cup' is a bigger, a finer, a more searchingly honest, a more penetrating novel than 'The Bent Twig' ever promised us Dorothy Canfield Fisher could write."—D. L. Mann.

The library is open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and from 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays.

Keep Off the Lawns

Everyone admires a nice, clean street, bordered with pretty green lawns, and our town has always been noted for them, yet at this season of the year when people are doing their very best to have the new grass grow, planting seed and leveling them up, careless people walk over them and tramping down the seeds and young grass ruin them. This is not only confined to thoughtless children, but grown people who insist upon taking "a short cut" across a grass plot, even climbing a fence to do so, regardless of the efforts of others to make the street beautiful. Just put this in your think box and warn your children to be careful and you will assist greatly in making Englewood beautiful.

Addition to Englewood Fire Department

Fire department station No. 51, 6345 Wentworth Ave., has received new fire fighting apparatus which, in the opinion of officials, will reduce the fire hazards of the district about 20 per cent, it was announced today.

The apparatus, known to the city fire department as one of the most modern fire fighting apparatus, was installed in the station last week.

In a trial test a capacity pressure and delivery of 750 gallons was obtained in 59 seconds, a new record in the station's history.

Captain Stitzel, head of the station, said that the new apparatus would reduce the fire dangers in the district to the minimum.

Evangelist McGeachy, after a short absence, is scheduled to open a series of sermons at Gospel hall, 765 W. 69th St., starting Sunday, May 1st, it has been announced.

Those who attended Rev. McGeachey's last series of meetings remember his powerful, plain, straight from the shoulder manner. How he kept back nothing that was profitable testifying both to the Jews and also to the Gentiles, repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ, Acts 20:20 and 21.

Auto Squad Added to Englewood Police

In order to check the wave of successful holdups, robberies and other crimes, an automobile squad under command of Detective Sergeant Charles Gratton is patrolling the south side from 55th St. south to the city limits and the lake to the city limits.

The squad was organized last week by Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris. Four squads to patrol other sections of the city were made up at the same time.

The squads work in eight hour shifts. Detective Sergeant Gratton's crew started their work last Thursday morning.

In inaugurating this new patrol system Chief Fitzmorris divided the city into five zones. Each of the five zones was furnished with a high powered automobile and a flying squadron.

The Englewood district is known as the far south zone.

The Englewood squadron is composed of from four to six men. All are heavily armed. The men will be able to reach the scene of any criminal action within ten minutes after it is reported to the station.

The squads will report in to headquarters every fifteen minutes by telephone. They will start their patrol each day at 8 a. m., quitting at 4 p. m. During that time James Gortland, secretary to Chief Hughes, will be on duty at the bureau to relay reports of crimes committed in their districts to the squad leaders.

In commenting on the new system Chief Fitzmorris said:

"The modern holdup man uses a fast automobile and he must be caught by the fast automobile. Previously it has been too easy for criminals to get a long lead on the police. We have the cars now and we have them stationed in such a way that they will be able to get on the job in a hurry. There is going to be a big change in Chicago's crime record."

Along with this new service Chief Fitzmorris ordered Deputy Chief of Police John Alcock to appoint investigators to "piperize" the department and report cases of "lazy, inefficient and bolshevik policemen."

Boy's Week at Federated Churches

The Auburn Park Federated church is planning to observe Boys' Week May 6th to 13th. Extensive plans are being made for the week. Among the outstanding features will be the following: An all day hike and picnic on Saturday; Sunday, May 8th, will be boys' day in the church in which the boys and their work will be featured. Monday, May 9th, at 6:30 p. m. there will be a boys' banquet served by the girls of the church, probably under the direction of the ladies of the Federated church. On Thursday, the 12th, the boys will entertain the Federated church. While the above are only some of the salient features the whole week will be filled.

Along with the many other progressive plans of the Federated church is going a more extensive plan for boys' work. At the present time a number of athletic teams are being organized and arrangements are being made for their practice. The girls are not being left out of the outdoor sports.

Daughters of Isabella

Final arrangements have been made for the big dance, card and bunco party to be given by St. Sabina Circle No. 111, D. of I., at the Englewood K. of C. club house, 63rd st. and Harvard ave., on Saturday, April 30th, 1921.

Come and toddle to "Husk" O'Hare's super-orchestra. For the convenience of those who do not dance, euchre, cinch, five hundred and bunco will be played in the parlors. Come early and have your choice of tables.

How About the Chicago Band?

"Does Englewood want the services of the Chicago Band this summer?" This is the question which the directors of Chicago Band Association are asking the civic leaders, club women, and business men in all neighborhood centers. In the past the band has stimulated trade and encouraged community social life for your neighborhood. If neighborhood centers wish the services of the band in the future it is no more than fair that they give the band their support, the association announces.

"You need the Chicago Band in your community this summer," says Ward S. Perry, president. "The band needs $125,000 to defray expenses for the coming year." A drive is on now, launched by the association, to raise this money. Headquarters have been opened at 21 N. La Salle St.

The band, which is in the eleventh year of existence, is known throughout Chicago for its music, which is given free of charge. In parks, playgrounds, schoolhouses, community centers, hospitals and charitable institutions it is perhaps appreciated more than in any other place.

For in these places it has appeared on hot summer afternoons and cold wintry evenings and given cheer to the unfortunate, the poor, and hard working people who go to the parks for diversion on Sunday afternoons and weekday evenings. It is through the medium of the band that people who haven't the time or money to cultivate music of the higher order are made familiar with works of composers such as Liszt, Chopin, Debussey, Brahms and other artists. The programs are not all of a classical nature, however. They are varied by popular and operatic themes.

Not a patriotic celebration, national event, or big civic movement has taken place without the Chicago Band being on hand to play. All these things have been done without a cent of expense to those who have benefited. Each year the financial support has been donated in advance by members of the association, and prominent men and women of Chicago's business and social circles.

The band has been a booster for your community and will continue to be if it has the proper support.

For two cents a person, music can be supplied to 500 persons for ten dollars, annually. For one year's dues, a member automatically supplies 500 persons with free concerts. By buying a membership you not only give pleasure to 500 people but you boost your community and incidentally yourself.

Hamilton Park Branch Library

After reading Floyd Dell's "Moon-Calf" you will enjoy this other study of an interesting childhood, written from a different angle. This is the first important novel of a Detroit lawyer who is writing under a pseudonym.

"Zell," by Henry G. Aikman.

This is another story of middle class America, and particularly of the childhood and later development of Avery Zell. Zell's childhood had been desolate and tragic through the sordidly unhappy marriage of his parents. With his sister he was dragged through the most revolting divorce proceedings, both in court and out, and its disgrace clung to him throughout his youth.

Later on when he himself contracts an unhappy marriage and a great love comes into his life, with opportunities for self-enfoldment and growth, with divorce pointing the way to freedom, the memory of his abnormal childhood saves his little son from a similar fate.

Avery Zell's discontent is a pathetic thing, stressed by his inability to break through it and realize his greater ideals and ambitions.

John Farrar, H. L. Menchen, Heywood Broun and other foremost critics have found it a book of real merit and all agree that it is a novel of genuine distinction.

7% AND SAFETY. Our first mortgages upon improved and producing farms have never lost a penny of interest or principal to our hundreds of satisfied customers. They are secured by a first lien upon indestructable property—agricultural land which yields annual and successive harvests which always find a ready market. These securities are non-fluctuating—in which respect they differ from a bond or a stock investment which is always affected by market conditions. Every farm mortgage which we make remains continuously under our supervision until it is paid off in full. Interest and principal are collected and remitted to you without charge. Such an investment is as simple as a savings account and pays over twice as much.

In a generation we have built up a reputation for care and conservatism which has brought us customers from over 30 states. We will be glad to send you our booklet and list of desirable mortgages without obligation.

CONGRESS HEARS DRAMATIC PLEA FROM FILIPINO

Philippine Resident Commissioner Isauro Gabaldon

Washington. — "Must the heart of America beat only for the freedom of Ireland, of Poland and of the Czecho - Slovaks, and not for the independence of the Philippine Islands?"

This was the question Resident Commissioner Isauro Gabaldon of the Philippines adressed directly to the membership of the House of Representaives In a speech which was given very close attention and was frequently applauded.

"At one time," said Commissioner Gabaldon, "Congress had before it no less than thirty resolutions expressing sympathy with the aspirations of the Irish people, if not actualy urging England to grant independence to Ireland. At that time, also the Filipinos were knocking at your door. Out of the womb of war, many European republics were born, and America has rejoiced to uphold the same. And yet the claim of the Filipinos is still unheeded. Must there be exceptions, then, in international justice?

"My plea, gentlemen of the American Congress, is that you ignore no longer the repeated requests of a deserving people for an independence that rightfully belongs to them. The granting of independence now affords the United States a golden opportunity to give to the world unanswerable proof of its sincerity, its consistency and its altruism. It will be the greatest example of square dealing in the history of the ages.

"Do not think we are not appreciative of all you have done for us. We are. America has truly treated the Filipino people as no other nation has ever treated an alien race in all history. The high points of the American policy in the Philippines have been consistently inspired by altruism. We know that you were actuated in your labors by the desire to contribute to our own welfare.

"And we love you perhaps most of all for your solemn promise to grant us that which we hold dearer than life itself—our freedom. Independence is our national ideal. It is our all absorbing aim. It grows stronger every hour. For the spirit of nationalism never dies. Much less can it be subdued. We believe that we can never hope to be a sturdy nation if we are to rely forever on the magnanimity of the United States.

"America's task in the Philippine Islands is finished. What you have assumed as your sacred obligation in that part of the world has been fulfilled. A people with a medieval system of institutions has been transformed into a conscious nation, imbued with all that is modern in the activities of nations. And if you give us independence our gratitude to you will increase a thousand fold; it will last forever if you keep faith with us.

"There is but one issue in the Philippine question, and that is: Is there today a stable government on the Islands? In the Jones law you promised independence upon the establishment of such a stable government. Your own Governor-General has officially reported that there is a stable government in existence today, and we also have submitted plenty of evidence to substantiate its existence. Therefore, we hope and expect America will now carry out its pledge."

FINE HAT MAKING A PHILIPPINE ART

This Filipina is making a Philippine hat, which is becoming quite popular with both men and women in the United States, and is usually a source of great pride to the wearer.

FILIPINO INDEPENDENCE, BUT NO GUARANTY

(Chicago Tribune.)

We do not blame the Filipino people for wanting their complete freedom. It is the natural aspiration of mankind.

After hearing a real jazz band, some people feel like asking where they got their liquor.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

The Sensible Maid

She wore a suit of corduroy.
A cap and leggings made of leather;
She radiated health and joy
And charm and beauty, altogether.
A mate for any pioneer,
Strong for the long hike and for camping.
(But equally effective here
If she should choose to take up vamping.)
Her broad, thick shoes attracted me.
(To say naught of her shapely ankles.)
And to address her I made free—
Oh, still the disappointment rankles!
I praised her splendid taste in dress;
She smiled and said: "Yep, this'll kill 'um!
I'm wearin' this here rented mess
To be took in a wild west fillum!"

Are you moving? Neither am I.

I don't know who we can appoint "Queen of the May" this year, as Glenwood Preble positively declines to serve another year in that capacity.

My good old friend Dr. Robertson reminds us that while swatting the fly, we must not forget to rout the rat.

If "Big Bill" Haywood has run away to Russia why not let him stay there? For that matter, should he take the rest of the I. W. W.'s with him, let him do so.

George Hubbard tells me that the only reason that Great Britain continues the coining of the "haporth" is so the canny Scotchman may contribute something to charity.

The good little boys who have been playing peg top and marbles all week, will assemble in school Monday morning and sincerely (?) sing, "Oh! how I love my teacher."

What constitutes recreation depends of course, on the point of view. Here is that of a certain small citizen in a school, who wrote to his father: "We are having a good time here now. Mr. Jones broke his leg and can't work. We went on a picnic and it rained and we all got wet. Many children here are sick with mumps. Mr. Smith fell off the wagon and broke his rib, but he can work a little. The man that is digging the deep well whipped us boys with a horse whip because we threw sand in his machine and made black and blue marks on it. Harry cut his finger badly. We are all very happy."

"I say, Sandy," said Jock, handing back his friend's photograph, "waen ye had those photos taken, why didna ye smile?" "And those pictures costing me two dollars a dozen!" replied Sandy. "Are ye crazy, mon?"

President Wilson is fond of telling a story about an old teamster. This old fellow said to the treasurer of the firm one day: "Me and that off horse has been working for the company for seventeen years, sir." "Just so, Winterbottom, just so," said the treasurer, as he cleared his throat, and added: "Both treated well, I hope?" The old teamster looked dubious. "Well," he said, "we was both tooken down sick last month, and they got a doctor for the hoss, while they docked my pay."

"It's no good, uncle," said the ambitious youth. "If you won't give me more money at your place I'm going over to get a job at the new store." "Don't be silly, my lad!" admonished the old merchant. "They're only just started. How d'you know they won't go to smash in six months? You've a job with me for life. We're firmly established and thoroughly sound financially." "Well, if they do smash I dare say I'll get another job somewhere else." "Ah, my boy, remember the old adage, 'A rolling stone gathers no moss.'" "Moss? Moss? Who the deuce wants to gather moss? Where's the market for moss these days?"

I know a certain Englewood man who was approached by a stranger who offered to sell him two dozen quarts of "the real thing" for $200. He brought it in two suit cases, and picking out, apparently at haphazard, one of the bottles, opened it and after the two had sampled the contents and pronounced it very fine liquor, the man was paid and disappeared. The buyer treating some friends that evening, opened another bottle and found it to be "the real thing" learnedly known as aqua pura, or in plain United States, "water," and this was what the remainder of the twenty-three bottles contained. Two hundred dollars is a pretty stiff price for a quart of whiskey, but then there is the experience to be taken into consideration, and—but I will stop here.

The program will consist of orchestral music, vocal and instrumental selections and the pretty operetta, "A Dream of Fairyland" given by the grammar grades and Minims. Rehearsals have been in progress for some time and the proficiency of the pupils of this worthy institution is remarkable, so that those who attend will enjoy a treat. The admission price is fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children, all of which is to be donated to the relief of the starving people in Ireland. The large auditorium will accommodate a good crowd and it is hoped their friends will give the Irish Relief Fund a splendid benefit.

States Attorney Crowe to Speak to Kiwanis

The luncheon of the Englewood Kiwanis club Tuesday at Campus Court was very interesting and a large number of visitors from other clubs were present, including the newly elected Mayor of Blue Island. A treat from Kiwanian Fred Wilson was a dainty fruit and iced dessert that has kept the boys' lips smacking ever since. Mr. Joseph K. Brittain, the veteran real estate man and president of the Illinois Association of Real Estate Boards, addressed the club and guests on the subject of "City Zoning," showing the importance of restricting manufacturing, business, etc., from purely residence districts. The club has been promised the treat of listening to States Attorney Crowe at our next luncheon, Tuesday, and a full membership should greet him.

John Harold Bowen's Funeral

John Harold Bowen died Monday, April 18th, aged 25 years, at the South Shore hospital, from acute pneumonia. Mr. Bowen was a young man of the finest type, served his country through the war, a kind, loving son and brother and a faithful friend. His funeral was held from Cunningham's Chapel at Englewood ave. and Normal blvd., and was attended by hundreds of friends. Burial at Mt. Greenwood. He leaves a devoted mother and one brother, Walter W. Bowen, of Normal blvd. Besides hosts of friends, the chapel was a mass of wonderful flowers. The pallbearers were six life-long friends. Very few young men die and leave such testimony of sterling Christian manhood as J. Harold Bowen.

Of Course We Are to Blame—But

We frequently receive complaints of errors in local news and especially classified advertisements that are due solely and entirely to the writer. Some will give their telephone number but no exchange; others will give their telephone number instead of their residence number and vice versa; others even reverse the two and use the residence for telephone and telephone for residence number. We retain all "copy" for some time and are thus enabled to check up on them and often when we show that the error is not in the office but due to the "copy," we are informed that we are either impudent or ignorant. We discharge any employe for impudence, but can't very well criticise their ignorance for not knowing what a writer means, but uses what he says instead. Please be more careful and don't blame the paper until you have investigated.

Summer Policy at the National Theatre

Patrons of the National theatre at 62nd and Halsted sts., as well as the people of the south side, will welcome the glad tidings of the new policy this theatre will set in motion. The management has completed arrangements whereby it will remain open the entire summer with an entire new change of admission prices. Great pride is taken by the owners in this announcement, due to the fact that some of the very best New York and Chicago successes have been booked here. No expense was spared to give the people of the south side the very best attractions obtainable at prices which are in keeping with the times. A double assurance that there will be no disappointment in any sense of the word is the fact that Mr. John Biltgen, one of the owners, is always on the premises. Each week the best show the market affords will be none too good for this theatre; the talent secured to put the attractions on a par with any of the larger companies would not be at all exaggerated. The popular prices which will prevail during the summer months should be an inducement for capacity attendance, to assure a continuance of putting forth such attractions as "Up in Mabel's Room," which opens a week's engagement at the National theatre starting Sunday, May 8th. Later on "Turn to the Right" and many others, all of which will be announced in this paper. A wonderful show under a new management at new reduced admission prices will be your greeting at this theatre.

Why Physicians Advise Drinking it in Abundance

Because milk is one of the richest sources of life-giving vitamines and other essential food elements, physicians advise drinking it in abundance.

They say modern foods often deprive us of these vital factors. Lowered vitality and other ill health conditions, they say, frequently result.

Wanzer's is milk at its purest and best. It comes from our sanitary sunlit plant, where every modern safeguard is employed to protect its goodness. Records are available of wonderful health improvement where it has been taken regularly.
